About Dr. Paul Epstein

A pioneer and leading voice in Mind-Body Integrative Medicine, Paul Epstein, ND has quietly and persistently been leading the charge to bring awareness to the mind-body connection – and its extraordinary role in healing – for over 30 years.

Dr. Epstein’s passion for Mindful Healing includes treating patients in his private practice, authoring books and articles and traveling throughout the U.S. and internationally to lecture and teach.

It is his fervent belief that pain and illness present an opportunity for profound awakening and that true healing occurs only when the whole person (body, mind and spirit) is included in the healing process.

Whereas conventional Western medicine deals primarily with the physical body, psychotherapy focuses primarily on the mind and spirituality has generally been left to the realm of religion, Dr. Epstein has long asserted that all of these facets of the human experience must be listened to and engaged in an authentic self-healing journey.

Whether speaking to a patient, an audience of medical colleagues or the media, Dr. Epstein clarifies that the goal should not be to silence the symptom. Instead, he advocates looking at the symptom from a new perspective. This shift allows the patient to uncover and deal directly, and compassionately, with all that is contributing to their condition. Rather than grasping for a “quick-fix,” this approach gets to the root of the problem to produce a lasting, positive impact on the patient’s life.

As a practicing physician, Dr. Epstein integrates naturopathic medicine with life-changing mind-body therapies including narrative medicine, mindfulness meditation, stress reduction techniques, Buddhist psychology, and contemplative psychotherapy. He mixes the appropriate blend of methods to meet each patient’s specific needs.

As a result of decades of patient care, Dr. Epstein has developed a clear approach and proven methodology. This is not a simple cookie-cutter approach to treating patients. Instead, his Mindful Healing methodology, when applied to each patient individually, helps them access their own unique key – the ‘missing ingredient’ – that unlocks their ultimate healing.

Dr. Epstein often helps people no one else can – patients who have exhausted all other avenues in search of relief. He has mastered the ability to teach other practitioners how to guide their own patients through this powerful process as well.

In addition to his private practice, Dr. Epstein travels worldwide, lecturing and presenting workshops to healing professionals and general audiences. A sought-after keynote speaker, educator and author, Dr. Epstein’s warm and caring approach is far from clinical. Whether speaking to general audiences concerned about their health and wellbeing, university classes or medical groups, his presentations are highly experiential. He teaches how to embrace – and apply – an integrative mind-body approach. He does so simply and clearly with compassion and humor. Audiences are engaged as he guides them to listen and look within, open their minds and hearts and see with new eyes.

He is a frequent contributor to Naturopathic Doctor News and Review and many other publications. He is the author of the book Happiness Through Meditation, available on Amazon.com.

Dr. Epstein was born in New York City. He received his undergraduate degree in Sociology from Stony Brook University and his ND degree from the National College of Naturopathic Medicine (NCNM). His post-graduate residency program focused on preventive medicine and lifestyle counseling. Dr. Epstein has continued his medical and allied training in psychotherapy, internal family systems, guided imagery and meditation.

For Meeting Planners

An original and leading voice in Mindful Healing, Dr. Epstein enlightens, inspires and explains the concept of mind-body medicine, the role of stress in health and illness, how our biography becomes biology and how to use this knowledge on a self-healing path.

Your group deserves a speaker who connects with his audience, cares about each listener and truly makes a lasting difference with his work and his words.

Dr. Paul Epstein possesses the rare ability to speak to a wide range of audiences. Backed by decades of patient care, study of the mind-body connection and expertise in Mindful Healing, he makes the topic of mind-body integrative medicine relevant and accessible for every audience member.

With a quietly powerful presence, he encourages and empowers each listener to embrace the reality of their life, their story and ultimately find their healing.

Dr. Epstein's approach to Mindful Healing is clear, proven and inspiring

Whether speaking to colleagues in the traditional medical community and the healing arts – or speaking to a general audience of people interested in their own health and wellbeing – Dr. Epstein offers a depth of wisdom, insight and a crystal-clear perspective.

He goes beyond the buzzwords that often dilute and marginalize mind-body medicine.

Dr. Epstein guides his audiences to explore deep questions: “How can you tap into your own inner wisdom? What hidden causes might be related to your health challenge? What’s missing in your quest for healing? What does it really look like to take responsibility for your healing with love and compassion?” For Practitioners he addresses the question, “How can you effectively guide, treat and empower your patients to harness the profound healing power of the mind-body connection?”

An engaging style... a healing message...

“Your keynote resonated with me. It is difficult to find a holistic healer who so masterfully combines the integration of mind and body in such an entertaining, approachable style.”

~ R.G., LCSW, ADTR

Why choose Dr. Epstein over other mind-body speakers?

Dr. Epstein has discovered a Mindful Healing approach that is effective for people who have "seen everyone" and "tried everything" in their search for relief. He has perfected the skill for finding the missing ingredient – in their story, in the reality of their life – to help patients unravel the mystery and message in their condition. Dr. Epstein is masterful at identifying the essential ingredients of each patient's unique "healing soup" and guiding the patient to effectively and compassionately address those elements to dissolve barriers to healing. He knows how to teach individuals to find and accept their authentic healing and how to teach fellow practitioners to personalize and apply the principles of Mindful Healing with their own patients in their own practices.
